GLOBAL EXPERTS. LOCAL LEARNING.

This educational workshop will focus on discussing different aspects of Cardiology as they relate to pharmacists. Experts will share guideline recommendations for managing patients with different cardiovascular conditions using a case based approach. Presentations by these experts will include interactive audio responses to make the session interactive and more relevant to clinical practice.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Discuss the challenges of pulmonary hypertension pharmacotherapy
- Describe appropriate recommendations for initial vs. sequential use of combination therapy in patients with pulmonary hypertension
- Develop evidence-based therapeutic regimens to improve outcomes in patients with acute coronary syndromes
- Review hemodynamic management of shock using vasopressors and inotropes
- Identify the best choice of antiarrhythmic for a given patient case
- Recognize the role of DOACs in special populations: obesity and renal dysfunction
- Select the most appropriate anticoagulation regimen in complex scenarios
- Review current pharmacologic management of HF with reduced ejection fraction (HFrEF)
- Design an appropriate treatment plan for dyslipidemia using the 2018 cholesterol guidelines.
